

DCI SECURITY COMMITTEE

26 June 1978

NOTE FOR:

Chamber of Commerce Bldg.
Room 1036

FROM:

Executive Secretary, SECOM

Attached is a draft of a memorandum to State seeking response to your questions. It looks a little fuzzy to me and State may be tempted to give it short shrift in its current form. Could you look it over and perhaps supply a couple bits of information that would allow State to look at specific time frames.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Vic Dikeos
State Member, DCI Security Committee

FROM:
Executive Secretary

SUBJECT: Damage Assessment Study

1. The Chairman of the DCI Security Committee has recently endorsed a study by an element of the CIA of the forming of damage assessments. The results of this study would be of considerable interest to the Committee. Accordingly, assistance to the officer charged to perform the study appears appropriate.

2. This officer recently requested assistance in determining the following:
